

Future Ready Schools® (FRS) institutes are FREE two-day events designed to support principals, district leaders, IT directors, librarians, and teacher leaders who are interested in implementing personalized learning strategies for their students.

FRS institutes engage participants in professional development to build a regional network of peers who will work together in real time, share feedback, and find support to take the next steps to becoming future ready.

District Leaders		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explore proven methods that foster a culture of innovation and collaboration. • Develop a deeper understanding of all gears of the FRS framework. • Create a vision for FRS in the district. • Begin to plan next steps for your school or district.
Tech Leaders		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explore strategies for procurement/selection of technologies while balancing budget/sustainability. • Develop deeper understanding and knowledge about data privacy, security, and user behavior to inform district policies, practices, and protocols. • Create a plan to ensure effective stakeholder communication and collaboration.
Principals		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explore the skills and strategies principals need to lead a successful FRS school based upon the framework. • Develop an understanding of change management and effective culture. • Support participants in becoming a connected educator beyond their own school, district, and state.
Instructional Coaches		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explore effective coaching strategies and the skills, tools, and resources to support a FRS school. • Develop coaches as educational and instructional leaders. • Connect with educators beyond the school, district, and state.
Librarians		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explore how librarians can support FRS via FRL framework. • Develop teacher librarians as educational and instructional leaders. • Create conversations about the role of librarians supporting strategic work of schools.

All participants need to bring a laptop and earbuds.
